

Community Hospital Leadership Conference

September 16 – 19, 2021 ▲ Santa Fe, New Mexico

Celebrating 50 years of Serving Community Hospitals

Did you know that HealthTechS3 (originally Brim Healthcare) was one of the first hospital management companies in the United States? Started in 1971, the company has evolved from offering just management services to consulting and strategic services designed for community hospitals nationwide.

In celebration of our rich history, this year’s annual conference will yet again offer hospital leadership actionable insights and strategies for understanding the challenges and the opportunities facing community hospitals today.

Leading industry authorities will share innovative ideas and leadership skills to assist you in using the lessons learned from the global pandemic to build a healthier future for your hospital.
